National Registration Week

James Bacon will be holding a National Registration Stall from on Friday 6th February at 3:15pm in our academy playground.

This is part of a national registration week and will provide anyone with the opportunity to register to vote, as well as talk about the importance of voting. This campaign is not linked to any political party and is being run on neutral platform.

If you're 16 and above and not currently registered to vote but wish to do so on this date, please bring your national insurance number with you to the stall.
