Home Learning – Year 1 - Week 5 –Tuesday

Hello from Miss Jarrell, Miss Williams and Mrs Meek

Reading

Last week we looked at poetry, this week we are going to read another story about Mrs Armitage and compare it to the story we read earlier in the term. Today we're going to read the first half of the story on pages 2 and 3 then try answering the following questions:

1. What is the name of Mrs Armitage's dog?
2. Who gives Mrs Armitage the car?
3. What part falls off the car first?
4. Where does Mrs Armitage take the bonnet?

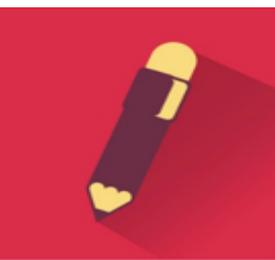

Don't forget to do phonics and at least 20 minutes of Reading for Pleasure (click here)!

Today my book recommendation is: The Radish Contest- Have you ever won a contest?

Please see the daily Ruth Miskin Training here:

If your child is in a Red Group they should be watching the set 1 speed sound lesson and if they are in Green, Purple or Pink phonics group they should be watching the set 2 speed sound lesson. If they are in the Orange phonics group, they should be watching the set 3 speed sound lesson.

Writing

Last week you wrote poetry. This week, we will be trying out Oak Academy's writing resources and using them to write an information text! Today we're going to be learning to memorise and information text. Practise hard, then have a partner test your memory if you can!

Here is the link to the website, click on 'Tuesday' to see today's lesson:

Our words this week are: were, where, there, their, here

Maths

We will be continuing with the maths lessons from the Oak National Academy.

Today we will be continuing to practice our addition and subtraction

Geography

We have already learnt about the 4 countries in the United Kingdom and their capital cities. Yesterday you answered questions Scotland to see what you could remember. Today we are going to be answering questions about England! You can find them on page 4.

Challenge: Can you create your own quiz about the four countries of the United Kingdom? You could share it with an adult, a sibling or even send it to the school office!

Fabulous Finish

PE: With an adult or a sibling practise passing a ball back and forth. How many times can you pass without dropping the ball? As you get better at it move further away if you can!

PSHE: Think about the family and friends that you might be missing right now. What makes them special? With an adult see if you can call, text or write them a card and tell them one special thing about them.

Purple Mash: Don't forget to check your 2Dos on Purple Mash!

Reading

One morning, Mrs Armitage came downstairs and found a letter on the mat.

She read it to her faithful dog Breakspear, it said:

“Dear Anastacia,

Because I am buying a new motorcycle, I shall not need my old car anymore. I would like you to have it as a present. It is in the street outside. Here are the keys.

With love from

Uncle Cosmo.”

There was the car.

“It doesn’t look very exciting Breakspear” said Mrs Armitage “but we’ll give it a try.” They climbed into the car and off they went.

They had not been going long when they went over a big hole in the road.
Bing, bang, dang, boing!

All the hubcaps fell off.

Mrs Armitage got out to look at the damage.

“Hubcaps,” she said “Who needs them?” She took them off to the scrap heap and on they went.

But as they were going round the corner by the vinegar works- Scrunch! The mudguard was ruined.

Mrs Armitage got out to look at the damage.

“Mudguards,” she said “Who needs them?” She took them off to the scrap heap and on they went.

They were backing out of the scrapyard when- Skraanng! The front bumper had caught on an old bedstead.

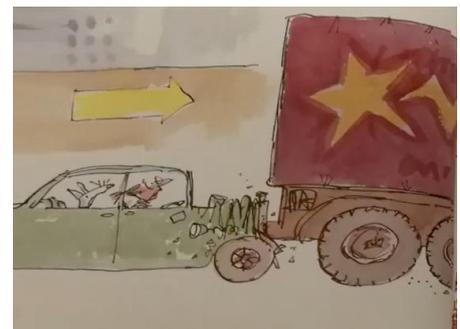

Mrs Armitage got out to look at the damage.

“Bumpers,” she said “Who needs them?” She threw the bumper on the scrapheap, and drove away.

They were on the way to the supermarket when a lorry backed out into the street. Skrunch! Right into the bonnet.

Mrs Armitage got out to look at the damage.

“The bonnet,” she said “Who needs it?” She took the bonnet to the scrapheap, and on their way they went.
