

Friday 8 th May 2020 Home Learning 2020- Term 5, week 3- Friday Hello from Miss Jarrell, Mrs Meek and Miss Williams!
Reading 	Yesterday we retold the story of the Big Blue Train in our own words. Today is a very special day, called Victory in Europe day. It is the 75 th Anniversary of victory in Europe and we are going to learn all about it. Can you read the text on page 2 and answer the questions on page 3? Work with a partner if you can!
Writing 	Yesterday, we started writing our story. Today we're going to continue writing it and check it. Make sure to use your story plan from Wednesday to help you. Remember to include all our steps to success: capital letters, full stops, finger spaces, adjectives (big, small, amazing, scary), suffixes (-est -er) and conjunctions (And, but, because, so). I have continued my example on page 4. Challenge: Can you check your spellings carefully and add some time conjunctions (first next, finally) to your work? Spellings- Please ask an adult or older sibling to test you on your spellings today. Our words this week are: cake, make, date, rate, late
Maths 	We will be continuing with the maths lessons from the Oak National Academy. Today we will be learning how to experience standard units of mass. Here is the link to today's lesson: https://www.thenational.academy/year-1/maths/to-experience-standard-units-of-mass-year-1-wk2-5
Topic 	Yesterday we started to design our own car so that we can have a go at building it next week! Today is the 75th anniversary of Victory in Europe, as well as finding out about Victory and Europe and answering questions for our reading we have also shared some ways you could choose to celebrate the anniversary with your parents on page 5-7.
 Fabulous Finish	Don't forget to do at least 20 minutes Reading for Pleasure and phonics! Today my recommendation is: A Hungry Fox https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/ PE: Today we will be following Joe Wicks' PE lesson on Youtube, make sure you have enough space to join in so that you're safe! Victory in Europe Day

Some people like to celebrate Victory in Europe day to remember the end of World War 2, and to make sure we never forget all the people who fought very bravely in the war. Some soldiers are still alive today, like Captain Thomas Moore, who raised lots of money this year for the NHS. If you would like to celebrate with your family here are some things you could do:

1) Most people who fought in world war 2 are very old, and some of them are lonely! Postcards of Kindness is a group of people sending postcards to places where they look after old people so they don't feel so lonely. You could join them at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/PostcardsOfKindness/> or if your adult doesn't have Facebook you could look up a nearby care homes and send them some drawings!

2) You could colour in the picture on the next page or make some pennants (triangle shaped flags) in red, white and blue.

3) You could do some cooking! During World War 2 people were only allowed a certain amount of a few types of food. These were called rations. I have included a list of rations and some recipes that people might have made with them in world war 2 on page 7.

4) Try listening to the style of music people listened to in world war 2 you can find playlists here: link, and here: link. Do you like the music? Why? Why not? How is it different to music you listen to today?

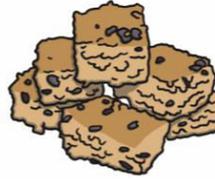

Product and Ration
1 egg
Bacon/Ham 110g (4oz)
Cheese 55g (2oz)
Sugar 220g (8oz)
Meat 110g (4oz)
Margarine 25g (10z)
Tea 160g (6oz)
Jam 135g (5oz)
Milk 3 pints (1800ml)
Sweets 80g (3oz)

These were an example of the kind of rations people had in world war 2. As you can see, people couldn't have many eggs, which lead to recipes like this one!

★ Eggless Sponge ★

Ingredients

1/2 pint of tea (without any milk or tea leaves/bags)
 3 oz butter/margarine
 3 oz sugar
 3 oz sultanas
 10 oz wholewheat flour (add 3-4 teaspoons of baking powder)
 1 teaspoon all spice (mixed spice)
 extra cinnamon if required

Method

Add the tea, sugar, butter and sultanas into a saucepan. Heat gently until the butter has melted, leave it to cool.

Mix all the dry ingredients together.

Add and mix the dry ingredients into the cooled liquid. Give it a beat and mix it well.

Grab a 7 inch cake tin and grease it. Put the mixture into it.

Cook on 180 degrees for around 45 minutes or more.

Serve and Enjoy!

It was also really important not to waste anything, so leftover vegetables were often used to make recipes like bubble and squeak!

★ Bubble & Squeek ★

Ingredients

Mashed potatoes
 Left over boiled cabbage, carrots, parsnips, sausages or vegan alternative (chopped)
 Mushrooms and onion (chopped)

Method

Grab a frying pan and add a tablespoon of margarine. Heat until it bubbles.

Drop in the onion and mushroom and fry for a few minutes.

Add the chopped veg and meat into the pan. Mix it for a minute or so.

Add in the mashed potatoes and mix in with the other ingredients in the pan.

Press down the mixture with a spatula to brown and heat through.

Keep turning it over and heating it through so the edges brown.

Serve and enjoy!
