| Monday | 1) There could be a variety of answers for this one. The pupil's prediction should be based on what they have read so far. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">I think Sir Charlie will meet some more ugly creatures and they will have a problem. Charlie will help solve the problem before he can reach the tower.I think Sir Charlie Stinky Socks will see the tower, but he won't be able to get near it as there is an ogre guarding it stopping anyone going in. He will then have a sword fight with the ogre.I think Sir Charlie will find his big adventure when he reaches the tower. I think he will have to have a sword fight with an evil king to get in to the tower. He will then rescue a princess from the top of the tower. 2) Examples of some suffixes in the story (they are underlined in red). Frightful faithful fearsome firmly wiggly fearless groaning moaned |

| Thursday | <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) They feared the dragon because he was coughing out fire and belching out smoke which would make someone afraid to go near him. The dragon was also stomping his feet in a temper which would be frightening to go near. Also, dragons are known to be scary creatures in other stories and they are big scaly creatures.2) He can slay the dragon, he will be a hero, he's not afraid.3) Don't judge a book by it's cover' ' All is not always as it first seems' |
