

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 1

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 2

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 3

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 4

Reading Worm 5

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 6

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 7

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 8

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 9

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 10

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 11

Please work with your child to learn these common exception (red) words. Colour in the words that they can read accurately and in a speedily manner every time they see them in a book or on a flashcard. When you have coloured in all of the words your child can move on to the next sheet.

Challenge: You could also work with your child to help them learn to write these words independently.

Reading Worm 12

