Reading 	With an adult, sibling or another child, read the second part of the story on page 2 and discuss these questions: How do you think Lola feels when Lotta swaps fruit with Evie? Why do you think she feels that way? Don't forget to do phonics and at least 20 minutes of Reading for Pleasure (click here)! Today my book recommendation is: Mythical Monsters!- I hope it's not too scary! Please see the daily Ruth Miskin Training here: If your child is in a Red Group they should be watching the set 1 speed sound lesson and if they are in Green, Purple or Pink phonics group they should be watching the set 2 speed sound lesson. If they are in the orange, yellow. Blue and grey phonics group, they should be watching the set 3 speed sound lesson.
Writing 	We will be continuing with the English lessons from the Oak National Academy. Here is the link to the website, click on 'Thursday' to see today's lesson: https://www.thenational.academy/online-classroom/year-1/#schedule

PSHE 	This week we have been learning about friendships. Yesterday we learnt about the 'friendship code' and wrote our own. For the rest of the week we will be learning about the people who help us. Today we will be looking at the different people that help us.
Fabulous Finish 	PE: Try joining in with PE with Joe Wicks today and don't forget to submit your scores for the Virtual School Games challenges before lunchtime (12:00)! Don't forget to check Yumu and Purple Mash!

Charlie and Lola: My Best, Best Friend

"Hurry up, Lola."

"Just got to get my things, Lotta."

When Lola gets to the classroom, Lotta says, "This is Evie. She's new!"

"Hello, Evie," says Lola. "I am Lola."

"I am Lotta," says Lotta. "And Mrs Hanson asked me to look after you."

"We must show Evie where everything is," says Lola.

"This is the corridor. And you have to do walking, not running."

"Otherwise you will be told, 'No running'" says Lotta.

"And these are the coat pegs for hanging up your coat."

"Yes, and you will probably get one next to mine." Says Lotta.

"And this is where we eat our lunch," says Lola.

"I wish I had something orange," says Evie.

"I wish I had something yellow," says Lotta.

"Let's swap!" says Evie.

So Lotta and Evie swap.

PSHE: The people who help us

We are all part of a community. We work together as kind friends so that we can all be healthy, safe and happy. There are lots of different people in our community and there are lots of different jobs.

All of the jobs in our community are important, even if they seem small.

If we had no doctors and nurses then people wouldn't be able to be healthy, and if we had no garbage disposal people the streets would be dirty and unsafe.

If we had no shop workers we wouldn't be able to buy the things we need, and if we had no police officers then the streets would be unsafe.

We all have an important role to play in keeping our community going. Here are some of the different people that help us. Do you know anyone who has these jobs?
