

<h2>Crafty Project: Teeth and Digestion!</h2>	What's inside the human mouth? Can you create a project of your choice that either shows what a tooth is made up of, what types of teeth we have, or what the human mouth looks like? This will help with your understanding of our science topic this term. Here are some visual examples of what you could do:
<h2>Roman Invasions Discovery Pack</h2>	Brain boosting books for home The Roman Mysteries Series- Caroline Lawrence Horrible Histories: Rotten Romans- Terry Deary Roman Architecture! Ancient History for Kids- Left Brain Kids The Usborne Official Roman Soldier's Handbook- Lesley Sims Romans on the Rampage- Jeremy Strong Enrichment Activities and Projects Term 1 – Roman Invasions
<h2>Spelling Focus - Term 1</h2>	Week 1 : c as s race, ice, cell, city, fancy, celebrate Orange words: busy, difficult, possible, describe Week 2: t as ph dolphin, alphabet, phonics, phone, graphy, elephant Orange words: favourite, regular, believe, remember Week 3: wr write, written, wrong, wrap, wrote, wreck Orange words: whether, weather, heard, herd Week 4: -sure measure, treasure, pleasure, enclosure, leisure, pressure Orange words: country, county, usual, usually Week 5: -ture Nature, furniture, moisture, structure, future, capture Orange words: accident, accidentally, disagree, Week 6: sub/ super subheading, submarine, subway, superhero, supermarket, supersonic Orange words: watch, bottle, quiet, climb Week 7: re / inter interact, international, intercity, refresh, reappear, return Orange words: brother, station, knee, world
<h2>Cooking Challenge</h2>	Have a go at making a Roman recipe. They loved using honey in their cooking and one of their favourite desserts was honey cake! Here is a fantastic recipe: https://www.bbc.co.uk/food/recipes/honeycake_67599 Challenge: What other recipes can you find that include honey? Think about if the Romans would have been able to make them? 	<h2>Writing Challenge</h2> This term, we will be looking at how the Roman Army invaded Britain. Imagine you are a young girl or boy growing up in Ancient Rome. Write a letter to Emperor Claudius asking him to join his strong, infamous army! Think about why he should say yes.	<h2>Mindfulness</h2> taking care of you! It's very important for you to take care of your mind as well as taking care of your body by eating healthily and doing regular exercise. So, in order to keep your mind healthy, why not try some of these activities? https://lifejournal.com/blogs/10-games-for-children-keeping-your-mind-healthy https://www.fun-mindfulness-activities-children-breathing-exercises
<h2>Number Focus - Term 1</h2>	Focus: Learning the 3 and 4 times tables. Fluency: Mix up the 2, 5 and 10 multiplication tables and related division facts. Fun: Access lots of fun maths games on Purple Mash! Times Table practice: https://www.topmarks.co.uk/mathsgames/hit-the-button https://mathsframe.co.uk/en/resources/resource/477/Multiplication-Tables-Check		